Ask an Implementation Manager
Welcome Josef Torres!

Q: I need to give some students extra time or different due dates. What's the best way to handle extensions and exceptions in ALEKS?

Josef explains how to use the Exceptions tool in ALEKS to provide flexibility for students in a multitude of ways.

Links our team enjoyed this month:

- Need a refresher on using Respondus Monitor with ALEKS? View this training.
- Thought you might like this SXSW EDU 2026 panel on expanding STEM opportunities—According to recent data, only 9% of graduates from underserved high schools complete STEM degrees within six years. This conversation brings together educators and nonprofit leaders to discuss.
- Did you know we have a math placement tool called PPL? Learn more about Navigating Math Placement with Insights from ALEKS PPL.
- April 22 (today!) is Earth Day! Check out some of our team's top outdoor activities:
  - Senior ALEKS Marketing Manager, Megan Aruta, enjoys going on color walks to find beauty in the nature around her.
  - Hiking is a simple favorite of ALEKS Marketing Coordinator, Erin Whelihan. Find a hike in all 50 states!
  - Courtney Cozzy, Senior Marketing Manager for ALEKS Math, dives into nature by learning how to identify birds and their calls with the Merlin Bird ID app.

Have a great week!
