Step 4: Select the Newly Copied Connect Section

Locate the newly copied Connect section and click Select to pair it.

Note: A section that's already paired shows Already Paired instead of Select, so you can easily tell it apart from the newly copied section.

The screenshot shows the McGraw Hill Connect interface. At the top is the McGraw Hill connect logo. Below it is a link: < Back to Canvas. The main heading is "Pair your Canvas Course with Connect". There are two buttons: "Pair with existing Connect course" (blue) and "Pair with new Connect course" (light blue), separated by the word "or". Below these is the text "Choose a course section to pair with:". Underneath is the category "Biology". A box contains a book cover for "McGraw Hill Test Course, 14th edition". Below the book cover is the heading "Sections (2)". There are two sections listed: "Copy of McGraw Hill Test Section" with a red "Select" button, and "McGraw Hill Test Section" with a grey "Already Paired" button.
