

TEST BUILDER: Export to Learning Management System (QTI)

(New Experience) Video: CLICK TO VIEW

Test Builder allows you to export exams that can be administered through your learning management system. After you've finished selecting and editing your content, you will see a Settings page, where you can decide how to export your exam.

< Title: Exam	1	Total Questions: 4	Total Points: 40.00

After making your selection, click "Submit." If you selected either of the LMS export options, after clicking "Submit" you will see a confirmation screen where you choose to receive an email notifying you when the file is available for download.

Click 'OK' to close the confirmation box and you will automatically be returned to the My Tests page, where you will see a "pending" status in the format column for your export request. Click on the "Refresh List" button on the upper right corner to see if the file is available.
