Access McGraw Hill GO

STEP 1: To access McGraw Hill GO, select a GO assignment from your Blackboard assignments list.

If you are part of an Inclusive Access* program (*also known as First Day access or something similar, where students are provided with access to course materials on or before the first day of class), skip to STEP 3.

STEP 2: If you are not part of an Inclusive Access* program, you will have three access options:

1. Temporary Access: Select Access Now for two weeks of free access.
2. Use Access Code: Enter a McGraw Hill GO access code and click Redeem.
3. Purchase: Select Purchase to use a credit card or PayPal.

STEP 3: Select Complete Registration to complete your registration and access your McGraw Hill GO assignment. (Note: This will automatically link your Blackboard account with GO, so there is no need to enter any additional student information.)

Attempting an Assignment

STEP 1: To start a GO assignment, select it from the content page in Blackboard.

The screenshot displays the Blackboard interface for a course titled 'mpdemo2'. The top navigation bar includes links for Content, Calendar, Announcements, Discussions, Gradebook, Messages, and Groups. The left sidebar contains sections for 'Course Faculty' (listing Megan Platt as the instructor), 'Details & Actions' (with links for Roster, Progress Tracking, Class Collaborate, Attendance, and Books & Tools), and a vertical menu of icons. The main area, titled 'Course Content', lists five chapters, each with a McGraw Hill logo and the text 'No due date'. The first chapter, 'Chapter 01: The Exceptional Manager', is highlighted with a red rectangular box. The other chapters are 'Chapter 02: Management Theory', 'Chapter 03: The Manager's Changing Work Environment and Ethical Responsibilities', 'Chapter 04: Global Management', and 'Chapter 05: Planning the Foundation of Successful Management'.

STEP 2: Select Launch.

The screenshot shows a Blackboard course interface for 'mpdemo2'. The left sidebar contains navigation links: Content, Calendar, Announcements, Discussions, Gradebook, Messages, and Groups. The main content area is divided into 'Course Faculty' (listing Megan Platt as the instructor) and 'Course Content'. Under 'Course Content', five chapters are listed, each with a McGraw Hill logo and 'No due date': Chapter 01: The Exceptional Manager, Chapter 02: Management Theory, Chapter 03: The Manager's Changing Work Environment, Chapter 04: Global Management, and Chapter 05: Planning the Foundation of Successful Management. A right-hand panel titled 'Chapter 01: The Except...' displays 'Details & Information', including 'Due Date' (No due date set) and 'Your Submissions' (Unopened, No due date). At the bottom of this panel is a prominent black 'Launch' button.

STEP 3: Select OK to land in the reading portion of the assignment. If your assignment allows multiple attempts, you will see how many attempts you have remaining for this assignment.

The screenshot shows a McGraw Hill GO assignment page. A pop-up dialog box titled 'Chapter Assignment' is centered on the screen. The dialog contains the text: 'This assignment has a reading and questions. You can move back and forth between them.' and 'You have 3 of 3 attempts remaining for this assignment.' At the bottom of the dialog are two buttons: 'Return to Course' and 'OK'. The background of the page is a blurred image of a group of people. The top of the page shows the McGraw Hill logo, the word 'GO', and navigation links like 'Exit' and 'Questions'. The bottom of the page includes a copyright notice '© 2024 McGraw Hill. All Rights Reserved.' and links for 'Terms of Use', 'Privacy Center', 'Report Piracy', and 'Site Map'.

STEP 4: Use the eBook navigation menu (A) to read the assigned chapter. Select Questions (B) to access the assessment portion of the assignment.

STEP 5: When in the questions you can:

- Answer questions (A). Note that each time you select an answer your choice is saved (B).
- Navigate between questions (C).
- Return to the Reading (D). Your answers will be saved. You can return to adjust your answers at any time, until you submit the assignment or the due date passes.
- Submit the assignment (E).

STEP 6: Select the Submit button when all questions have been answered and you are ready to submit your assignment.

If your assignment has only one attempt, you will see the Assignment Submitted page with your assignment results.

The screenshot shows the 'Assignment Submitted' page in the McGraw Hill GO interface. At the top left is the McGraw Hill logo and 'GO' text. At the top right is an 'Exit' button. Below the header is 'Chapter 2: Sociological Research'. The main heading is 'Assignment Submitted' with a green checkmark icon. Below this, it says 'Total questions answered: 15 of 15'. A grey box contains the following statistics: 'Correct : 5', 'Incorrect : 10', and 'Unanswered : 0'. At the bottom left is a 'Go to Results' button.

Select Go to Results to review your responses and explanations for the assessment questions.

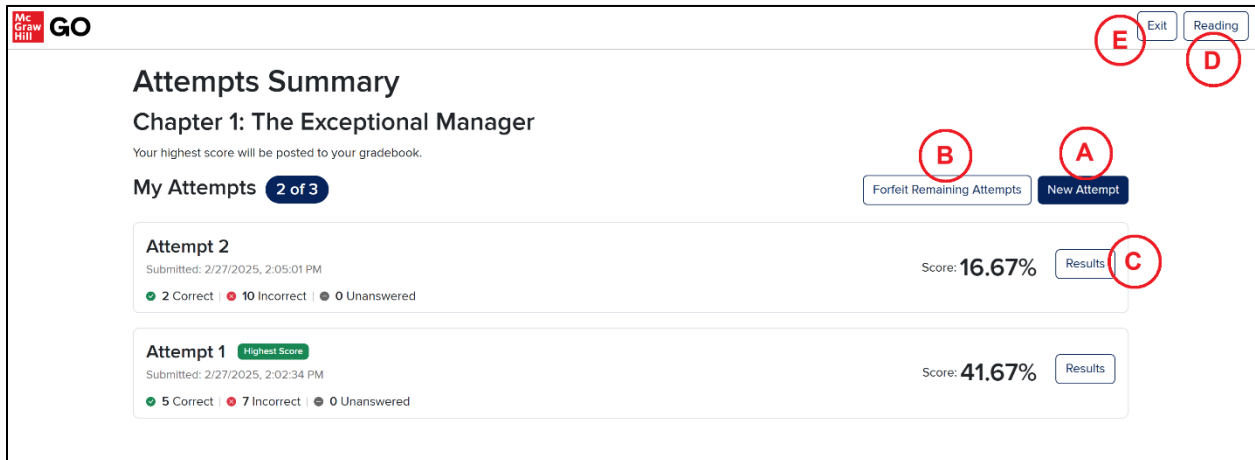

The screenshot shows the 'Question 1 of 15' page in the McGraw Hill GO interface. At the top left is the McGraw Hill logo and 'GO' text. At the top right are 'Exit' and 'Reading' buttons. Below the header is 'Chapter 2: Sociological Research'. The question is 'Question 1 of 15' with a green 'Correct' badge. The question text is 'A measurable trait or characteristic that is subject to change under different conditions is referred to as a(n)'. There are four radio button options: 'hypothesis.', 'theory.', 'variable.', and 'operational definition.'. The 'variable.' option is selected and highlighted in green, with a green checkmark icon to its right. Below the options is an 'Explanation:' section with the text 'A variable is a characteristic that changes from case to case.'

If your assignment has multiple attempts, you will see the Attempts Summary page with your assignment attempt results.

From this page you can take the following actions:

- Start a New Attempt (A)
- Forfeit Remaining Attempts (B)
- View Attempt Results (C)
- Return to Reading (D)
- Exit the assignment (E)

ReadAnywhere App

Instructors and students have access to their McGraw Hill GO eBooks on mobile devices through the ReadAnywhere app. The ReadAnywhere App includes:

- Offline reading – study anytime, anywhere
- One interface for all McGraw Hill eBooks
- Highlighting and note-taking
- Video, audio, and interactive activities included for select titles
- Syncs across platforms, always up to date
- Available for Android and iOS

How to Log into ReadAnywhere

- Install and open the ReadAnywhere app
- If the same email address is used to log into both Connect and the GO LMS course, log into ReadAnywhere with the Connect credentials.
- If the user does not have a Connect account, click “forgot password” in ReadAnywhere instead of logging in.
- On the Password Assistance page, enter the email address used to access the GO LMS course.
- A link will be sent to the email address to reset the password. Click the link and follow the instructions to reset the password.
- After the password is reset, open ReadAnywhere and log in with the email address and the new password just created.
- The user should see eBooks from GO courses in their ReadAnywhere library.

Please note:

- GO assignments are not currently supported in the ReadAnywhere app, just GO eBooks.
- If the same email address is used to log into both Connect and the GO LMS course, a user may see both Connect eBooks and GO eBooks in their ReadAnywhere library.
- A user will not see the GO eBook in ReadAnywhere until they launch their first GO assignment from their LMS.
- If a user registers for GO with temporary access, they will see GO eBooks in ReadAnywhere until temporary access expires. They will need to purchase GO to continue seeing the GO eBook in ReadAnywhere. If temporary access expires and they do not purchase GO, they will lose access to the GO eBook in ReadAnywhere.
