

Quick-Start Conference Starters (pick 1–2 per chat)

- 1. What's the most fun part of your adventures with Digit so far? Tell me more!
- 2. When you get an answer right, what positive message do you get? When it's wrong, what helpful clue do you get? How do you use clues to help you?
- 3. What's your secret power move when a problem is tricky? Clicking the Hint button? Drawing it out in your ALEKS Adventure Notebook? Tell me more!
- 4. Open your ALEKS Adventure notebook. Which problem makes you shout 'I'm proud of this one!'? Show me why!
- 5. Which portal(s) are you curious to explore? Which math skills do you predict you'll practice there?

Spark Joyful Math Chats Using ALEKS Adventure

Mini-Conference & Reflection Ideas for K-3 Classrooms

ALEKS

60-Second Reflection Prompts \(\lambda \)

(great for exit tickets or morning meeting share)

- Today Digit and I conquered _____!
- My brain grew biggest when I used _____ (hint / made a drawing).
- One portal I can't wait to unlock is _____ because _____.
- A tricky mission turned easy when I _____

Teacher Tips to Keep It Magical 🔭

- Keep a "High-Five List" for your review jot proud moments during conferences.
- Encourage ALEKS Adventure Notebook sketches, number sentences, or quick "I did it!" stars — even scribbles count!
- Quick "I Noticed / I Wonder" Script: Try to say one of each
 - "I noticed you used the Hint button like a pro!"
- "I wonder which new portal will open when you complete three more topics!" Learners light up hearing both!