

List of Changes

Corrections in the 21st Century 9th Edition

Frank Schmalleger, John Smykla

ISBN: 9781260241068 / 1260241068 / © 2021

available in connect®

SEE LIST OF CHANGES ATTACHED.

McGraw-Hill Connect® is a course management and adaptive learning solution that enhances your unique voice and teaching style. As your partner, we're committed to helping you achieve your course goals and unlock student potential. That's why we've made meaningful updates to this edition.

New In Connect:

SmartBook® 2.0 – Our adaptive reading experience has been made more personal, accessible, productive, and mobile.

Writing Assignment – This assignment type delivers a learning experience that helps students improve their written communication skills and conceptual understanding. As an instructor, you can assign, monitor, grade, and provide feedback on writing more efficiently.

You Make the Call Activities – Teach students discretion by placing them in the role of officers, attorneys, and probation officers.

Author-Created Videos – 22 author-created assignable videos shot specifically to accompany this book, and called out in the text with video icons and summaries will keep students more engaged with the content.

You Make the Call

Learning that Fits
mheducation.link/smartbook2

Additional Value When You Upgrade

- NEW! Free mobile access to SmartBook 2.0 assignments and the digital textbook with the ReadAnywhere app.
- NEW! Remoting proctoring and browser-locking capabilities allowing for more control over the integrity of online assessments.
- NEW! Ability to create enhanced assignments personalized to each student's needs.
- Accessibility and student data security enhancements.
- More advanced student and class reporting capabilities.
- 99.99% platform uptime

Visit mheducation.com/connect for details.

Changes to Schmallegger: Corrections in the 21st Century, 9e

Chapter 1: Corrections: An Overview

- A press release from the Bureau of Justice Statistics has been added to the chapter that discusses results from the most recent National Crime Victimization Survey.
- Updated information on salaries for correctional officers.
- Discussion of how the FBI's Uniform Crime Reporting Program is transitioning to a national incident-based reporting system (NIBRS).
- A new scan code has been added to the chapter that leads to a recording of a recent prison telephone conversation between convicted murderer Jodi Arias and rapper Kareem Williams.
- The role of risk assessment in correctional management is now stressed.

Chapter 2: Corrections Today: Evidence-Based Corrections and Professionalism

- The results of a 2018 comprehensive study of California's Proposition 47 as it impacts crime in that state is now included.
- A new QR scan code has been added to the chapter that allows readers to view a video describing opportunities for women who want to work in corrections.
- The QR code that allows readers to view a document on evidence-based correctional practices has been updated.

Chapter 3: Sentencing: To Punish or to Reform?

- The chapter objectives have been clarified.
- The chapter line art is updated.
- Data throughout the chapter have been updated, as has the discussion of capital punishment.
- Discussions of the U.S. Supreme Court cases of Deck v. Missouri and Hurst v. Florida have been added.
- A new study on wrongful convictions is explored.
- A brief history of the Innocence Project is now provided.
- A discussion of the Second Chance Act has been added to the chapter.
- Mention of the FIRST STEP Act has been added.
- The chapter now describes six types of reform implemented by the states and the federal government in an effort to reduce prison populations.
- Photos have been updated.
- End-of-chapter exercises have been updated.

Chapter 4: Probation: How Most Offenders Are Punished

- A new web-based video featuring the authors has been added to the chapter. It is entitled Probation.
- Revised chapter title and new chapter-opening story on Chicago probation officers wearing body cameras.
- Latest data on the characteristics of adults on probation.
- New discussion on probation reform bills and how success is measured.
- Bureau of Justice Statistics Press Release on probation has been added.
- New QR codes that direct students to videos and podcasts to extend the ideas discussed in the chapter.

Chapter 5: Intermediate Sanctions and Community Corrections: Between Probation and Incarceration

- Chapter has a new title to better understand the role of intermediate sanctions in the corrections continuum.
- New chapter-opening story about an 11-year-old girl who threatened to shoot up a school and received house arrest.
- Evidence-based findings on intermediate sanctions updated and new exhibit on notable fines and penalties charged to corporations.
- Updated discussion on the number of drug courts and the defendants they serve.
- New web-based videos featuring the authors have been added to the chapter. They are entitled Intermediate Sanctions and Day Fines.

Changes to Schmallegger: Corrections in the 21st Century, 9e

- New QR codes that direct students to videos and podcasts to extend the ideas discussed in the chapter.
- New section on drug courts and the opioid crisis has been added.
- New Centers for Disease Control and Prevention press release on opioid-related deaths has been added.
- Expanded coverage on the new types of drug courts: veterans treatment court, DWI court, family drug court, reentry court, juvenile drug court, reentry drug court, tribal healing to wellness court, and the Back to TRAC clinical justice model.
- New coverage of the Trump administration move to cut the federal Bureau of Prisons Residential Reentry Centers.
- New coverage on the failure of boot camps to reduce reoffending.
- New coverage on how the fiscal crisis is influencing governors' and legislators' interest in intermediate sanctions.

Chapter 6: Jails: Way Stations Along the Justice Highway

- New web-based videos featuring the authors have been added to the chapter. They are entitled Jails and Jail Privatization.
- New chapter-opening story on mass incarceration.
- Significantly restructured chapter.
- New coverage on the problems of the nation's money bail system and what they American people want in its place.
- New exhibit on the myths and facts of using risk and needs assessments to reduce disparities in the justice system.
- Latest data on the characteristics of jail inmates and facilities.
- New Bureau of Justice Statistics press release on jail inmates.
- New coverage on "deflection" as a strategy to remove inmates who are the mentally ill from jail.
- Revised discussion of the most recent data on the increase in the jail suicide rate.
- New coverage on the role of private foundations to reduce jail populations.
- New QR codes that direct students to videos and podcasts to extend the ideas discussed in the chapter.

Chapter 7: Prisons Today: Change Stations or Warehouses?

- New web-based videos featuring the authors have been added to the chapter. They are entitled Prison Industries and Prison Overcrowding.
- New chapter reorganization.
- New chapter-opening story on the prison sentence of Lawrence Gerard Nassar.
- Inclusion of Criminal Justice Reform as a new stage in the evolution of U.S. prison history.
- New focus on mass incarceration.
- New Bureau of Justice Statistics press release on prisoners.
- Latest data on characteristics of adults under jurisdiction of state and federal prisons.
- New QR codes that direct students to videos and podcasts to extend the ideas discussed in the chapter.
- Updated discussion of states' use of Justice Reinvestment.
- Expanded coverage on evidence-based programming in prison education and employment.
- Expanded coverage of the move to limit the use of solitary confinement.

Chapter 8: Parole: Early Release and Reentry

- New web-based videos featuring the authors have been added to the chapter. They are entitled Parole and Reentry and Parole: The Good and the Bad.
- New chapter-opening story on Patricia Cushwa, acting chairwoman of the U.S. Parole Commission.
- New coverage on the First Step Act and reauthorization of the Second Chance Act.
- Updated Legal Action Center states' scorecard on the legal obstacles the formerly incarcerated face.
- Expand coverage on "ban the box" in college and university admission.
- New research on what judges, parole officers, and inmates believe that it takes to stay out of trouble.

Changes to Schmallegger: Corrections in the 21st Century, 9e

- Streamlined the presentation and discussion of granting parole, the parole hearing, conditions of parole, and types of parole.
- New QR codes that direct students to videos and podcasts to extend the ideas discussed in the chapter.
- New coverage on what works in reentry clearinghouse.
- Latest data on characteristics of adults on parole are included.
- Updated discussion on felon disenfranchisement, reentry courts, and prisoner reentry and community policing.

Chapter 9: The Staff World: Managing the Prison Population

- Statistics on the pay of correctional officers have been updated.
- The discussion of the terrorist threat inside of America's prisons has been expanded.

Chapter 10: The Inmate World: Living Behind Bars

- A Federal Bureau of Prisons press release dealing with the BOP's i-Connect educational program has been added.
- Updated data reported under the federal Survey of Sexual Victimization in correctional facilities.
- The list of prison argot has been expanded.
- Updated data on imprisoned women and the growth of women's imprisonment.
- Added discussion of the federal First Step Act that eliminated the practice of shackling women prisoners while they are giving birth.

Chapter 11: The Legal World: Prisoners' Rights

- Discussion of a new case in which the U.S. Supreme Court denied an Islamic inmate's request to have an Imam by his side during his execution is now included.
- The discussion of law libraries has been updated and amended.

Chapter 12: Special Prison Populations: Prisoners Who Are Substance Abusers, Who Have HIV/AIDS, Who Are Mentally Challenged, and Who Are Elderly

- Latest data on the prevalence of HIV in prison.
- Updated date on HIV testing policies in state and federal prisons.
- New questions concerning the fate of the Affordable Care Act's ability to use Medicare for the cost of prison medical care.
- Updated and expanded data from the U.S. Department of Justice Bureau of Justice Statistics.
- New coverage of the Unger case and implications for the release of elderly prisoners.
- Discussion of the First Step Act's provision on compassionate release for federal prisoners.
- New QR codes that direct students to videos and podcasts to extend the ideas discussed in the chapter.

Affordability & Outcomes

Affordability & Outcomes

- Flexibility! More choice. You decide.
- Multiple options at multiple price points!
- Content options: McGraw-Hill, custom, Open Learning Solutions.
- Format Options: Print, McGraw-Hill eBook, Courseware, bundles.
- Delivery Options: Inclusive Access, rental, purchase.
- 950 Inclusive Access institutional partnerships in 2019.

Visit mheducation.link/realvalue for details.

Support At Every Step

Find all the resources you need for a successful semester in one spot: supportateverystep.com.

Faculty support is critical to the success of implementing and using digital courseware. That's why we teamed up with faculty to create a website dedicated to providing above-and-beyond support. From initial training to implementing new tools to digging into the data, we're here to help.

Let us know how we can partner with you at every step.