Step 2

If you don't have a Connect account, which allows access to Connect and the Bookshelf, you can create it now. We recommend using your school email address so that all your courses are in one account.

It is essential that you use the same username and password when you login to both the Bookshelf site and the ReadAnywhere app so you have full access to your account.

Create Student Account

You're almost there! Please fill in your information to create your account and proceed.

Step 3

If you purchased an access code card, go ahead and click Redeem Code to enter it now on your Bookshelf site.

Check that the correct title and edition for your textbook comes up in the bookshelf before you complete the process.

If you are purchasing access online and need to find your text, click Shop Now and you will be directed to www.mheducation.com. Here use the search field to find the assigned text.

Step 4

Select the title you were assigned and then select the format you wish to purchase. Click Rent Now/Buy Now depending on your selection.
