

L. Frank Baum's The Wonderful Wizard of Oz is published.

The first crayons, invented by Binney & Smith, are available to the public. Binney's wife, Alice, comes up with the brand name "Crayola" by combining cray (French for chalk) with ola (for oily).

World War I begins.

Woodrow is elected president of Princeton University.

Woodrow is elected governor of New Jersey.

On February 3, Wilson dies in Washington, D.C.

1900

1910

1914

1916

1897

1903

1912

1915

1924

Wilson is elected president of the United States.

Wilson marries Edith Bolling Galt.

Wilson is elected to a second term as president.

Aspirin is invented by Felix Hoffman, a German chemist searching for something to relieve his father's arthritis.

The Titanic strikes an iceberg and sinks on its first voyage, killing over 1,500 people.

