

For items 1 through 6, fill in the circle next to the correct answer.

1. What is the subject of this sentence?

Is the cat hiding in the tree?

- A. hiding
- B. is
- C. in the tree
- D. the cat

2. What is the correct way to write this sentence?

The goat ate corn hay and oats

- A. The goat ate corn, hay and oats.
- B. The goat ate, corn, hay and oats.
- C. The goat ate corn hay and oats.
- D. The goat ate corn, hay and oats

3. Which sentence is the most specific?

- A. The boy lived in a house.
- B. The person lived in a building.
- C. Frank lived in a blue house.
- D. Frank lived in a house.

4. Which sentence is the most general?

- A. Ms. Lopez drove her car to work every day.
- B. The woman drove her car to work.
- C. Ms. Lopez drove her car to work.
- D. The woman drove her vehicle to work.

Go to the next page. →

5. What kind of sentence is this?

Put the red bricks under the green table.

- A. statement
- B. question
- C. command
- D. not a sentence

6. Where should the comma go in this sentence?

The tree had red green and blue leaves.

- A. between red and green
- B. between and and blue
- C. between tree and had
- D. between blue and leaves

For items 7 and 8, write your answers on the lines.

7. Write this sentence the correct way.

the teacher said the test is almost over

---

---

8. Here's what's happening:

Jane is standing on the diving board, looking at the water far below.

Write a sentence that tells how Jane feels.

---

---

STOP. Go back, and make sure your answers are correct.