

1

When our class found out the date of our teacher's birthday, we decided to give him a surprise birthday party. Everyone in the class knew about the party except the

- A boys. B parents. C girls. D teacher.

2

The best time to learn to swim is when you are very young because children have less fear of the water than

- A dogs. B police. C cats. D adults.

3

It is fun to give animals names that really fit them. Doug's dog was brown and had a patch of white on his forehead. Doug called him

- A Tag. B Spot. C Rex. D Rover.

4

Our garden produced so much this summer that we spent less money than usual for

- A clothes. B water. C food. D seeds.

5

Every month our teacher draws a calendar on the chalkboard. She draws a picture at the top of the calendar about a special holiday in that month. The picture on the calendar this month is a turkey. The month is

- A September. B November. C February. D January.

6

Native Americans used to live near the shores of this lake. We know this because along the beach we sometimes find

- A stones. B shells. C sand. D arrowheads.

7

The circus monkey was all dressed up in a soldier's uniform. It looked almost like a person except that it had fur and

- A a hat. B fingers. C teeth. D a tail.

8

Compared with the young of most other animals, human babies are very helpless. They require months of care before they are able to walk or to

- A breathe. B cry. C sleep. D talk.

9

We know that whales are not fish because whales cannot breathe underwater as true fish can. The whale must come to the surface often to get

- A dry. B air. C warm. D water.

10

Modern machines can do unbelievable jobs of wrecking buildings, moving earth, and driving piles. Adults as well as children like to watch these powerful machines

- A at work. C in the house.
B on Sunday. D in races.