

Sometimes beavers build a dam near the lodge.

The dam raises the water level and protects their lodge.

A beaver enters its lodge through an underwater tunnel. The tunnels keep predators, such as otters and wolves, from getting inside the beaver's home.

An American Beaver's Lodge

