

◉ F is for Filmmaking ◉

Filmmaking is one of the biggest industries in Southern California. Each year, thousands of films and television programs are filmed in Californian movie studios. The main studios are located in Burbank and Los Angeles.

Los Angeles is home to the most important film awards in the United States, the Academy Awards, also known as the Oscars.

Since 1929, the Oscars have been awarded for excellence in many aspects of filmmaking.

Film director James Cameron on the set of the movie Titanic in Los Angeles